Dy nim, but from the time of his sudden death she did not shed a tear.

During the past week a mission has been conducted in the church by several Jesuit fathers, and yesterday murked the chose of their mission for women. At 10.39 in the morning solemn high mass was celebrated by Rev. Peter Paul Owens, a Brooklynie, who is now stationed at Nonmouth. III.

At the offertory Prof. Jantz played the hymn "Nearer, My God, to Thee."

Suddenly Mary Wilson arose. Her hands were uplifted appealingly, and tears rained down her cheeks, as she cried out:

"Oh, father, father! Why can't you come back to me?"

Then the young girl fell to the floor in a dead faint.

In a moment there was great excitement. Only a portion of the worshippers had seen what had occurred, and the remainler crowded forward from the rear of the church. The organ stopped playing, and the members of the choir, flocking to the rail, peered over the batcony.

There was a little Philadelphia selling on the Lehigh Valley stock in that city.

The dealings continue to be confined to the four walls of the Stock Exchange. The only inquiry from outside investors is for first-class bonds, some of which can be had at pretty low figures. Outside of the strike matter there was little in the way of news this morning to affect prices either way.

Posted rates of sterling exchange were reduced to 4.83 1-2 for bankers' long and 4.86 for sight drafts.

Another Webb, of Port Republic, who was found dead in bed at her father's house on Saturday night, showed that she committed suicide by taking poison. She was in delicate health, and it is alleged that Edward Johnson, a married man of this city, was responsible for her condition. Miss Webb's relatives say that she became engaged to Johnson not knowing he was married. Another story is to defect that Johnson designed Alice Webb and married another' woman in Atlantic City, and when Miss Webb learned this she became despondent and ended the life.
